PERRY STOCK SOLD

TO WADLEY BROS. OF THIS CITY THIS WEEK.

BROUGHT ABOUT $1400

The indebtedness is $15,000—Creditors Will Not Realize Very Much.

The remainder of the stock of the Perry Harness company was sold this week to Wadley Bros. for $750, being sold by Harry C. Carter of St. Joseph, who was in charge of the stock by order of the bankruptcy court in St. Joseph. The total realized by the sale of stock for the creditors was about $1,400, and the indebtedness, according to the records of the bankruptcy court, amounted to about $15,000.

The St. Joseph Gazette of Thursday had the following interview from Carter:

"From what I could learn Perry did a large business," said Mr. Carter yesterday. "He had a finely appointed shop, with the latest machinery, and he employed as high as twenty-five harness makers. He made a good product which sold readily, largely for cash. Maryville people say he was a spender, and tell a number of stories about the way he let go of his money."

It is said that Perry sold his product very cheap. One large St. Joseph firm bought $5,000 worth of stock from him at one time at a price lower than they could be manufactured for here. Another concern purchased 100 sets of harness at one time cheaper than it could make them.

"Perry was fond of fine hose," said a clerk in a Maryville store, in speaking of the former harness manufacturer. "About Christmas time he entered the store and said he wanted 'look at some hose. I showed some I thought were pretty good, but he wanted something better. Then I took down some silk hose which sold at $2 a pair. They seemed to suit him. 'Give me half a dozen pairs,' he said. Then he looked at the box and asked how many were in it. There was just one dozen. 'Give me all of them,' he said, and I wrapped up the $24 bundle of socks."

This is said to be only one instance of his good taste for nice things to wear.

When Mr. Carter took charge of the Perry stock he found a great deal of good material but much of it was cut ready to be made up, and as a result did not command near the price which would have been obtained otherwise. He said that the creditors will realize only on the money which the stock brought. There was a lot of machinery in the plant but this was all leased from the company which manufactured the machines, which took it back. Most of the creditors were eastern concerns. It is thought they will realize less than 10 cents on the dollars on their claims.

Frank Perry, who was the proprietor of the business, is said to have left for parts unknown.

News of Society and Womens' Clubs

Green-Wood.

At the home of Dillard Green, at 6 o'clock Wednesday evening, March 22, 1911, occurred the marriage of his daughter, Miss Mary E. Green, to Max G. Wood of Maryville.

Mr. Wood is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wood of Maryville.

After the nuptial knot had been tied by Rev. W. E. Royston, pastor of the M. E. church at Pickering, and the congratulations given, a most sumptuous feast of everything good to eat was enjoyed by all present.

Those present were Mr. Dillard Green, father of the bride, and Lizzie, her sister; also Charles, Johnnie and Jack, her brothers; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Huggbanks and little son, Mrs. Wheeler Campbell and baby, Mrs. Frank Hinton and children, Mrs. Elwood Shinabargar and children, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Crigger and children.

After the festivities and moments of social enjoyment the friends departed, wishing the bride and groom much happiness and success in life.

Surprise Party.

Mrs. James L. Hunt, living on East First street, was taken completely by surprise Wednesday evening, when some of the neighbors came in to celebrate the anniversary of her birth. She was 72 years old. Refreshments were brought by the guests. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. James Craig, Mr. and Mrs. Rol Thomas and daughters, Misses Mary and Velma Thomas; Mr. and Mrs. John A. Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kelley and son, Orin Kelley; Miss Maggie Seckington, Charles Gallagher, Jacob Falkner of Pickering.

Friends Saw Them Off.

Quite a number of the members of the Royal Neighbors and other friends of the family of Mr. and Mrs. John Linneman went to the Burlington depot Wednesday evening to see them off for their new home in Sacramento, Cal. Mr. and Mrs. Linneman and their seven young sons, Louis, Marion, Vincent, Lawrence, John Edward, Henry Paul and Frederick, have many friends who very much regret their departure. They carry with them the best wishes of all for health, happiness and prosperity in their new home in the land of sunshine and flowers. Mr. Linneman is one of the finest cabinet makers and workers in art woodwork in the country, and he will be missed from among our many good business men.

Dined in Country.

Rev. Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Ford and little daughter, Marie Elizabeth, and Rev. and Mrs. C. H. John were guests at dinner Wednesday of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Embree, two miles southwest of Maryville.

Entertained for Bride-Elect.

Mrs. J. L. Jones, assisted by her daughter, Miss Marie Jones, entertained informally Wednesday afternoon at her home, 614 West First street, for her niece, Miss Mary Alice Herren, whose approaching marriage was announced at the party given by Mrs. Joseph Jackson, Jr., Tuesday afternoon. Only relatives were the guests, and the afternoon was occupied very pleasantly with sewing and conversation, and a dainty two-course luncheon was served. The company included Mrs. John W. Herren and her daughter, Miss Mary Alice Herren, Mrs. Henry Toel, Mrs. William J. Toel and daughter, Miss Brownie Toel; Mrs. George Lorraine, Mrs. J. L. Jones and daughter, Miss Marie Jones.

Reception Wednesday Evening.

The reception given Wednesday night in the basement of the South Methodist church flats by the two Christian churches of the Normal was well attended, and every one had a pleasant evening. Two very pleasing musical numbers were given by Mr. P. O. Landon, Miss Marie Jones, Miss Lillian Lindholm, Mr. Lona Percin and Mr. Orlo Quinn. The evening's entertainment was brought to a close with refreshments.

MISS SPICKERMAN WITH CONSERVATORY

Miss Eva Spickerman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Spickerman of this city, has been secured by Professor P. O. Landon of the Maryville Conservatory as a member of the faculty, and will begin her duties at once. Miss Spickerman is a graduate and post-graduate of the Conservatory, and has been a very successful teacher the past three years, and conducted a studio at Bedford for several months before going to Chicago last October to study with Mr. Lambert. She is so highly appreciated by Maryville audiences and her ability as a musician and teacher is so well known that comment from us is unnecessary.

DIED VERY SUDDENLY

AFTER FINISHING DINNER, W. A. BONEWITZ PASSED AWAY.

HAD HEART TROUBLE

Was 65 Years Old, and Had Lived in Nodaway County Thirty Years.

William A. Bonewitz, a well known retired farmer of Maryville, passed away suddenly at his home, on East Cooper street, Thursday afternoon at 1:20 o'clock.

Mr. Bonewitz has been in poor health, caused by organic heart trouble, since last July, and he has been seriously sick at times ever since. He seemed to be improving the last two weeks, and for several days past had been much better than usual. At dinner Thursday he enjoyed the hour unusually well, and conversed with his family and his brother, J. W. Bonewitz of Hobart, Okla., who arrived Monday night to visit him. The meal was finished, when Mr. Bonewitz expired suddenly while sitting in his chair. His daughter, Miss Lella Bonewitz, was summoned home from her work in the Maryville schools, and messages were sent to the other daughters and sons who are out of the city.

Mr. Bonewitz was 65 years old January 17. He was born in Huntington county, Ind., where he grew to manhood and was married February 18, 1871, to Miss Christiana McFadden, a native of the same county. Mr. Bonewitz and his family came to Nodaway county in 1882 and located on a farm about four miles south of the city.

Three years ago he purchased the old Thad K. Beal place, in southeast Maryville, improved it and made a beautiful home there for his family. He was a well informed man, and his many friends in the county will learn of his death with deep regret. He is survived by his wife and six children, James Bonewitz of Ponca City, Okla.; Bert A. Bonewitz of Savannah, Gerald Bonewitz, living six miles northwest of the city; Miss Lella Bonewitz, a teacher in the Washington school of this city; Miss Edna Bonewitz, a teacher of the Albright school, near Skidmore, and Miss Lois Bonewitz, at home. He also leaves five brothers and two sisters, J. W. Bonewitz of Hobart, Okla.; L. F. Bonewitz, Orlando Bonewitz, Lemuel Bonewitz, Isaiah Bonewitz of Huntington county, Indiana; Mrs. Jacob Sprinkle and Mrs. Eliza Harris of Marion, Ind.

The funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to express our sincere thanks to neighbors and friends and the different orders who so kindly assisted us during the sickness and death of our husband and father.—Mrs. L. A. Bennett and Family.

FUNERAL SERVICES LARGELY ATTENDED

The funeral services of the late L. A. Bennett, who for many years was among our best citizens, were largely attended at the First Christian church Wednesday afternoon, Dr. L. O. Bricker, the pastor, conducting the services. The music was rendered by a quartet composed of Miss Litta Roelofson, Mrs. J. D. Richey, H. J. Becker and W. E. Goforth.

The body was interred in Miriam cemetery. The pall bearers, members of the G. A. R. were the deceased's comrades, were John G. Grooms, W. H. Hudson, John W. Herren, G. A. Harrison, J. R. Croy and A. R. Sowers. Three of them, Mr. Grooms, Mr. Hudson and Mr. Herren, are also members of the Odd Fellows lodge of which Mr. Bennett was a member.

Relatives from a distance who attended the funeral were:

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Davison, Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Fritchman and son and daughter, Fred and Miss Lola Fritchman; Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Fritchman and son, Clay, and Dr. J. C. Hoshor, all of Rosendale; Mrs. William Ent of Savannah and Mrs. Harry Westcott of Fillmore.

Mrs. Davison is a niece, the two Mrs. Fritchman, Mrs. Ent and Mrs. Westcott the sisters, and Dr. Hoshor the brother of Mrs. Bennett.

TRAINING SCHOOL TEAM SCALPS SCOUTS

In the deciding game of basket ball series Wednesday, the Wild Indians of Normal training school second team corralled the Boy Scouts' five and lifted their hair with neatness and dispatch. The final score was 23 to 8 in favor of the training school seconds, but the Scouts were in the game every minute. Crawford, Miller and Richardson were their stars, Crawford securing one goal, Miller two, and Richardson throwing the only foul goal made in thirteen attempts.

Bobby Stall was the training school star. This diminutive forward shot five pretty field goals, and was all over the field. Ray Kaufman, at the other forward position, got three goals and passed well. Lee Schaub at guard played a good game, guarding his man closely and slipping in three goals on his own account. Van Horn and Grose at center and Chappell at guard put up a stone wall defense.

BELLOWS PURCHASED A NEW AUTOMOBILE

Mr. Ebberly of St. Joseph, representing the Woods Motor Vehicle company of Chicago, has been in Maryville the past two days on business for his company, and is interesting several Maryville people in the idea of purchasing electric cars. He has been using C. C. Corwin's electric car to demonstrate its use and advantages.

Mr. Ebberly has sold to George P. Bellows of this city a fine Locomobile Baby Tonneau, a four passenger car. Mr. Ebberly has purchased Mr. Bellows' Buick automobile and will take the machine to St. Joseph with him.

Mr. Bellows' new purchase will arrive in the city about the 1st of April and will be the finest car in this section of the country.

NEW CITY BUILDING

BEING TALKED OF BY MAYOR ARTHUR S. ROBEY.

TO COST ABOUT $10,000

Maryville Ought to Have It, as It is Very Much Needed Here.

Mayor Robey will confer soon with the members of the Commercial club as to the feasibility of building a new city hall on the property where the old one now stands, on North Market street. Sentiment among the business men favors the new city hall, and it looks as if Maryville might in a short time have a city building that would be a credit to a city of this size.

In case the proposition meets with the approval of the Commercial club and the business men, a special election will be called to vote on bonds to build the building. According to present plans the proposed building will cost $10,000.

The bonded indebtedness of the city is $22,000, $9,000 sewer bonds and $13,000 paving bonds. The city can very easily carry $10,000 more bonds. The new city hall proposition was voted on a few years ago and defeated. It is thought that if the Commercial club and the business men would favor the proposition it would carry.

A new city hall is very much needed here. Anyone that has been in the present building, we believe, will vote for a new one. It does look like progressive Maryville ought to have a building that would correspond with many of our other public buildings here, and one that we would be proud of.

THE WABASH DEPOT SHOULD BE BETTER

When the Wabash officials visit Maryville this evening in their special train, we hope they will notice how much out of harmony their passenger depot and surroundings are with that beautiful new $325,000 State Normal building just over the way from the depot.

The Wabash depot and its surroundings should be and look just as well as the Burlington depot. If they could exchange places, why, the Burlington depot would fit in perfectly up by the side of the State Normal.

And the so-called conveniences at the Wabash passenger depot should not be tolerated. Both toilets occupy a space of 6x5 feet (think of it), and one is under lock and key because it is not usable. The ladies' toilet is the only place where drinking water may be secured, and there is a hole in the floor that a 6-year-old child caught his foot in the other day and had to be assisted in freeing himself. There are no lights in either place, and they could not be made more public, as each is built out into the waiting rooms.

Several other objectionable things could be pointed out.

Little Boy Very Ill.

Robert, the little son of Dr. and Mrs. George Curfman of Salda, Col., is still critically ill at the home of his grandparents, Judge and Mrs. J. C. Curfman, on South Main street, where Mrs. Curfman and the little boy and his sister came to visit two weeks ago. Dr. Curfman, who was called to Maryville Monday, considers the child in a very critical condition.

Will Move to Maryville.

Mrs. Louella Landfater will move to Maryville in about six weeks from her farm in White Cloud township. Mrs. Landfater has purchased the residence on West Fourth street that is now occupied by D. W. Jones and family.

Mrs. Brainerd Johnson of Valentine, Neb., who has been visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. N. W. Templeton, returned to her home Thursday, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Neva Barker, who will be employed in Mrs. Johnson's millinery store at Valentine. They were accompanied as far as Omaha by Dr. Templeton.

Miss May Nelson and Miss Rosena Fanning of Bolckow and Miss Bernice Kershaw of Barnard came to Maryville Thursday and will remain until after the teachers' examination, which will be held Friday and Saturday by County Superintendent Oakerson.

Mrs. W. G. A. Edwards and little daughter, Augusta, went to Pickering Thursday to visit over Sunday with Mrs. Edwards' parents, M. and Mrs. W. A. Edwards. Mr. Edwards will meet them Sunday and accompany them home.

THE POWER OF CHARACTER BUILDING

Address delivered by Mrs. J. C. Shuff, secretary of the Mothers' Club of Pickering, at the last meeting, March 17:

When begin the building of character? And for the answer I found this little poem:

Oh, we who are making baby clothes
For a hope that will soon come true,
Do we take the pains with the work
Of our hearts
As with that which our fingers do?

For as we fashion the garments small,
With seam, and hem, and fell,
Our thoughts, be they careless, or
Glad, or sad,
Are shaping a life as well.

We are helping God this gift to make,
Which a blessing and joy may prove,
He gives us the fabric, new and clean,
We fashion it with our love.

How careful are we that our hands be clean,
When we work on these garments
white!

Do we pray that our hearts keep true
their trust,
And our thoughts be clean and bright?

The clothes, at most, will soon wear out,
The thoughts remain for aye;
The clothes may be washed, if stains
we see,
The thoughts are there to stay.

'Is not the life more than raiment?'
He said,
Who unclothed in a manger lay,
Whose life was so holy and pure a thing
He gave it to show us the way.

Then our hearts sing on as our fingers
fly,
A tune so pure and bright,
That the baby heart may be happy and glad,
And pure as these garments white.

And when many years have passed away,
And the work of our hands is gone,
He will gather a harvest rich and rare
From the seeds that our hearts have sown.

The power of the mother in forming the character of the child is beyond calculation. How large a part the mother of Washington played in the formation of her son's character! Perhaps there never was a more wonderful example of a mother's influence than that of the Wesleys' mother. The stern, passionate piety of Mrs. Wesley made saints and preachers of her children. No finer late instance of the influence of a mother in the formation of character can be adduced than that of Gerald Massey. His love of liberty, his pride in honest, hard working poverty. I do not say that mothers can give genius to their sons, but all mothers can do for their children what Mrs. Washington did for her son, George; what Gerald Massey's mother did for him, what thousands of good mothers all over the world are doing this day—patiently moulding, hour by hour, year by year, that cumulative force which we call character.

The mother loves her child, always and always. She does what she can, what she knows how. But the principal work of this day is the care of the house, not of the child; the construction of clothes, not of character. Many of us cherish the delusion that we are doing our full duty by our children when we provide them with the best food and clothes and send them to the best schools.

We encourage our children to have high ideals, and we have dreams "that are wondrous fair" regarding their future, but we fail to do all we might do in helping them to realize their high and beautiful ideals, because we are so busy with other things that absorb our time and thoughts.

Strong characters are not built up simply by not doing anything wrong. If our boys lack an ambitious and progressive spirit to the verge of selfishness, there is little to congratulate ourselves that they do not smoke or play cards. Not the past ages nor the mysterious future can ever give us a strong character built upon the things that never have been done.

The avoiding of bad habits, either because they weaken self-control or because they lead to dissipation is not enough for the strong, vigorous growth of character. It is the one who faces and overcomes some temptation that the victory must be given.

To build up a strong, sturdy manhood or womanhood that will command respect and enforce it everywhere, the child must have honor, truth, and courage. These are such essential qualities that they may be

909 IS THE POPULATION OF HOPKINS

(Hopkins Journal.)

Many of our citizens have been wondering what the figures "909" mean that were written with chalk on the sidewalks over town the other night.

As the village newspaper is supposed to get wise on everything, several have come to us to inquire the meaning of the figures, so we put our underground reporter to work, and he reports that in his opinion the figures mean the population of Hopkins as taken by the last government census.

We went to the enumerator, Elmon Lowery, but of course he played innocent. However, he was seen by the underground reporter to place the significant figures on the walks on the night in question, and we have no doubt but what 909 is the present population of our little city.

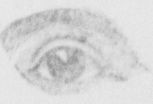

IS WORKING HARD TO CARRY OFF HONORS

The Maryville High school is working hard to carry off as many honors as possible in the track meet this spring. The boys are practicing every evening and are doing some excellent work. Kirby Taylor has worked up a speed of 11 seconds in the 100-yard dash, while Kane and Vandersleet are jumping 5 feet. When they get the stiffness worked out of their muscles they should by the time of the meet be in such form as to equal last year's records and carry off a number of points.

Mrs. Donald Cady, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. C. P. Denny of South Buchanan street, left for St. Joseph Monday evening to make her home.

BULLETS FALL AMONG TROOPS

Americans Prevent Crossing of Supplies for Federals.

SOON BULLETS ARE WHIZZING.

General Luque in Command of Mexican Troops Is Asked to Explain. Report of Firing Being Prepared by Lieutenant Taylor.

Presidio, Tex., March 23.—Shortly after the crossing of supplies from Presidio intended for the Mexican troops besieged in Ojinaga, directly across the Rio Grande, had been stopped, bullets from federal rifles fell among a detachment of United States troops guarding the American side of the river. An explanation has been demanded of General Luque, in command of the Mexican troops.

A report of the firing into the troops is being prepared by Lieutenant J. E. Taylor for transmission to Washington. The orders to prevent the crossing of supplies came from United States customs officials.

The ninth day of the siege shows the insurgent lines which surround the city unbroken. The insurgents routed an outpost and took possession of the trenches 400 yards from the federal artillery escarpments.

Reports from Ojinaga are that supplies are running low and besides the garrison of 300 soldiers and 1,000 non-combatants are suffering for want of food.

Several persons have been wounded by bullets which crossed the river. The latest victim, a Mexican youth, was shot through the thigh while watching a clash between the soldiers and the revolutionists from the American side.

A Mauser bullet tore its way through a circus tent while a performance was in progress.

"Tiel," exclaimed a Mexican clown who was amusing his countrymen. "The soldiers have at least one marksmanship who can hit a circus tent." F. S. Combs, a Scotch soldier of fortune, has been made a captain in the insurgent army, in command of twenty-five vaqueros.

TAFT SENDS FOR UCHIDA

Denies Stories That Maneuvers Have Any Reference to Japan.

Washington, March 23.—President Taft had a cordial interview with the Japanese ambassador, Baron Uchida, whom he sent for to deliberate with him upon the ratification of the new treaty between this country and Japan. He took advantage of the occasion to assure the ambassador that never in the history of the two countries had the relations been so pleasant as they are today, never had talk of war been more absurd.

President Taft expressed pleasure at the opportunity to set at rest, once and for all, the stories published from time to time in the last two weeks that back of the administration's order in sending troops to the Mexican border was a motive of precaution against some expected treacherous act by Japan. It also was reported that Japan had secured from Mexico a coaling station in the Pacific coast to be used as a base in attacking the United States.

The president said he was amazed to find on his return from Augusta that some newspapers had been giving credence to these reports by publishing them in a prominent manner. It was the first he had heard of them and he quickly expressed his regret that such "malicious stories," as he called them, should gain circulation. Baron Uchida is said to have assured the president that he attached no importance to the reports and had discovered that they emanated from irresponsible sources.

Limanour Says People Demand Revision of Electoral Laws.

Mexico City, March 22.—Admitting that Mexico is facing a crisis even greater than he had believed, Minister of Finance Limanour said the administration had no definite plan for the solution of the problems confronting it. It has no alternative but to continue the military program upon which it has entered.

Notwithstanding the government's aggressive attitude, reforms which are intended to remedy the alleged grievances complained of are under consideration. The most important is the revision of the electoral laws.

from truth. It is rather hard to call the imaginative lie a lie at all. It is so closely related to creative instinct, which makes the poet and novelist, that it is rather an intellectual activity misdirected than a moral wandering from the truth. Very imaginative children often do not know the difference between what they imagine and what they actually see. Their mind's eye sees as vividly as they believe and therefore they believe their own statements. Punishment is of no use. Their statements should be smiled at and passed over, for this is one fault that will pass with age. In the meantime he should be encouraged in every possible way to get a firm grasp on the world about him.

The artful or sly lie is the worst of all, partly because it is so unchildlike. This is the kind of fault that will grow with age and grow with such rapidity that the mother must set herself against it with all the force at her command. Such a fault is almost certain to be an inherited one, and the child with this fault is led into wrong doing by his desire to get something or do something. Find out what that something is and help him get it by lawful means. If you point out the straight path and show the goal well in view at the end of it, he may be persuaded not to take the crooked path.

In order to distinguish between accidental wrong doing and that which is the first symptoms of wrong thinking you must be in close touch with your children. This means you are not only to talk with your child, but to hear from his lips what he is doing, but to live so closely with him that in most cases you know what he is doing without him telling you. When he does tell you something which happened on the playground, be careful not to moralize over it. Make yourself as agreeable a secret keeper as his best friend of his own age. If the occasion needs moral reflection, the wise way is to lead the child to do his own reflecting. Always treat a child's confidence with respect. Never laugh at a confession of feeling or belief. The secret your child has whispered to you, the small naughtiness confessed should never be repeated to anyone.

If there is to be perfect confidence between you, you must not refuse to answer the child's honest questions honestly. The one subject usually kept out of speech between mother and children must be no forbidden subject. If the little daughter asks you where we got baby brother, don't you think it would seem as natural to the child to be told that it grew under mamma's heart, where it could be loved and protected until strong enough to live in the world outside, as to be told it was found under a cabbage leaf? It is my belief that by so doing a mother may create the first impression of her child concerning the bond between them, so pure and sacred, that no subsequent information from other sources will be able to greatly alter.

Teach the child kind heartedness. Most all children love pets, and perhaps the easiest way to teach them kindness of heart is to allow them the care of some pet. He will learn that such a pet is dependent on him for a livelihood. Never allow him to inflict unnecessary pain. Perhaps these seem trivial offenses. But wasn't it kind heartedness that played so great a part in the most lovable character of Lincoln? History tells us that from his earliest childhood until the end of his great career he never was able to witness physical suffering in any creature.

The child who is allowed to carry his kitten around by its tail or sit and amuse itself by plucking feathers from his pet chicken will never develop the character of a Lincoln. And wasn't it Lincoln who said after he became president, "All I am or ever hope to be I owe to my angel mother."

Let these directions should seem to demand an almost superhuman degree of control and wisdom on the part of the mother, remember that you are neither requested to be a perfect mother or rear a perfect child. A perfect child in this imperfect world would be strangely out of joint with the times. If your basic principles are right, and if your child has before him, daily and hourly, the example of a mother who is trying to conform herself to high standards he will grow as fast as it is best for him to grow. And the best results you can hope for are likely to be imperfect. But the results may be so founded upon everlasting principles as to tend continually to give place to better and better results.

DISORDER AT CAMORRO TRIAL

Prisoners Curse and Sob and Women Scream and Faint.

ALLEGED SLAYER ON STAND.

Angry Quarrel of Lawyers Provokes Demonstration From Accused Men and From Audience—Ring of Victim Is Exhibited in Court.

Viterbo, Italy, March 23.—Angry exchanges between opposing counsel at the trial of the Camorristi provoked a demonstration from the prisoners' cage beyond the control of the court officials, that necessitated a suspension of the proceedings. The accused men alternately cursed and sobbed hysterically while their women friends in the audience screamed and fainted, the wife of one of the prisoners being seized with convulsions.

The scene was enacted soon after the resumption of the sitting, which was adjourned because of the illness of a juror. At that time Giuseppe Salvi, one of those who are alleged to have stabbed to death Gennaro Cuocolo and his wife, was being interrogated by President Bianchi concerning his career.

Salvi was called for cross-examination. It is charged that he is the man who furnished the final evidence of Cuocolo's treachery in the Camorro and so brought about his sentence of death. In a letter written from the prison where he was confined for robbery, he asserted that Cuocolo had betrayed him to the police because he had given a share of the booty of his crime to another than Cuocolo. He called upon his brother Camorristi to avenge him.

It is asserted that according to the rules of the Camorra the ring was taken from the hand of the murdered man to be sent to Salvi in proof of the fact that his wish for vengeance had been observed.

Carabinieri claimed to have found this ring in the mattress of a bed at the home of a woman known as the companion of Salvi. Salvi protested that the ring was placed in the bed by the Carabinieri for the purpose of manufacturing evidence.

Prosecutor Produces Ring.

As the cross-examination progressed President Bianchi suddenly produced the ring and, holding it so that it could be seen by all in the court room, said:

"This is the ring found in the home of your woman associate."

The statement called forth a chorus of protests from the prisoners, who shouted, "No! No! It is not Cuocolo's ring; it is not his."

The cries grew louder and were taken up by sympathizers in the audience. Then Lawyer Liguori, president of the board of attorneys of Naples, who is defending the informer, Gennaro Abbatemaggio, pushed his way to the space in front of the great stage and, staring into the eyes of the accused men, exclaimed:

"Yes, that is Cuocolo's ring."

This interruption brought the scores of lawyers for the defense into the fray and as the execrations of the prisoners grew louder, threw the whole court room into an uproar. In the babel of tongues one could distinguish those of repeated exclamations:

"Who pays you the price of Abbatemaggio's shame?"

"You are paid from the secret funds of the government!"

"You were sent here under orders from the Carabinieri!"

This attack was encouraged by the prisoners, who applauded as they exclaimed: "Bravo! Bravo!"

INDICTED PACKERS MUST STAND TRIAL

Immunity Bath Given Them in 1906 No Longer Effective.

Chicago, March 23.—The indicted Chicago packers lost their fight against going to trial on the indictments secured by the government several months ago, when Judge Carpenter in the United States district court overruled their demurrer to the charges and held that the immunity granted by Judge Humphrey of the federal circuit court in 1906 did not apply to the present charges, which, he held, were based on evidence not included in the Humphrey decision.

Judge Carpenter's decision occupied nearly an hour in reading and went into the controversy relating to immunity with great detail.

In brief, the packers' position was that any conspiracy that might have existed was the plotting prior to Judge Humphrey's immunity decision, and that the immunity from prosecution granted them extended over all future time, so long as the acts covered by the 1906 decision remained the same.

The evidence given by the packers before the grand jury, he said, could not relate to that which had not occurred and hence could have no future application.

As to the contention of the defense that the conspiracy ended with the first plotting, he ruled that so long as the acts complained of continued, the conspiracy remained in effect; unlawful acts growing out of the conspiracy and occurring after the indicted men had testified before the grand jury were new and separate offenses and subject to the operation of law.

Anson Wiley of Elmo was a city business visitor Wednesday.

TO OFFICE TOGETHER BY ORDER OF COURT

Before the county court adjourned Wednesday evening they made an order directing that the county surveyor and county superintendent of schools have offices together. As it is now the county surveyor has an office in the Hotel Ream building, there being no vacant rooms in the court house. The order of the court will take effect on April 1.

HAIR REMEDY

Here's the Proof

For two or three years my hair had been falling out and getting quite thin, until the top of my head was entirely bald. About four months ago I commenced using Sage and Sulphur. The first bottle seemed to do some good and I kept using it regularly, until now I have used four bottles. The whole top of my head is now fairly covered with hair and it keeps coming in thicker. I shall keep on using it a while longer, as I notice a constant improvement.
